Visitation Guidelines

Supervised visitation is an important step in establishing a relationship with a child. Being ordered to have a Monitor present is a common practice in court proceedings. Sometimes these are in the final orders, sometimes they are included in a Temporary Restraining Order.

We offer a safe and secure facility for a fun and fulfilling visit. Items in the facility include arcade games, board games, movies and plenty of toys.

Rest assured that our Monitors are thoroughly screened to the highest standards, including a full background check and will have certifications/training in Law Enforcement or other related fields. The monitor will be a neutral party and report to both sides equally.

The safety of the children are the #1 priority.

1. Both parties shall follow the orders set forth by the court/agreement and Fort Ringo Guidelines. Any violations maybe be reported, for severe violations, Fort Ringo reserves the right to contact the court associated with the case to report the violation along with terminating future visits.

2. Monitor reserves the absolute and unfettered authority to deny admission to ANY individual to the center and to halt the visit for any reason deemed appropriate by the Monitor. Monitors reserve the right to limit the length of a visit based on conduct by child(ren) or supervised party.

3. Dates set forth by Fort Ringo shall be followed. Dates and times may vary on availability of Fort Ringo Monitors. A change in visit date must be requested with Fort Ringo on the Monday of scheduling.

4. Payments and contact for scheduling is to be remitted no later than MONDAY by 9PM. Payment can be made in cash, money order, PayPal or Zelle. If payment hasn't been made by the deadline no visit shall be scheduled.

5. Non-Custodial Visiting Parties shall arrive NO later than 15 minutes before the start of the visit time(or visit is canceled and payment forfeit) and remain in vehicle at the designated location. Text the numbers provided to notify Fort Ringo of arrival. If Non-Custodial visiting party is being dropped off, the driver must leave premises after drop off.

6. If Non-Custodial party has not arrived by the 15 minute cut-off, or cancels within 72 hours of visit, the visit will be canceled and payment forfeit. The party requesting the cancellation must provide proof of why within 24 hours of cancellation to retain payment via, I.E. doctor's note, work schedule log, school schedule, ETC. Vacations, parties and holidays are not valid excuses for cancellation.

7. Custodial parties shall drop off NO earlier than 5 minutes before start time. Fort Ringo staff with come retrieve child(ren) from vehicle and escort them into building for visit. At the end of the visit, please arrive at least 10 minutes before the end(wait in the vehicle) for the child(ren) to be returned to you.

Visitation Guidelines

35. This is a service related organization. As such, we reserve the right to refuse service to those who do not abide by our policies. Failure to comply with the stated policies and/or contract will constitute termination of services.

36. In the instance of any violation of these rules, the Monitor will intervene and halt the visit. This is regardless of how or who caused the violation. The Custodial party may be called to retrieve the child(ren) regardless of much time is left in the visit. Visitation may be suspended entirely depending on the severity of the violation.

All visitors and guests will be screened before entry into the facility. This includes search and documentation of any items brought in, any snacks, and use of a detection device for screening. A pat down or "Terry Frisk" may also apply.

Guidelines are subject to change at Fort Ringo's discretion.

Visitation times vary on the openings of Fort Ringo. Failure to timely schedule a visit may result in loss of the preferred time slot.

Use of the Visitation Center is contingent upon following our policies. Inappropriate conduct or violations of our policies may result in cancellation of use of the Visitation Center.

Reports will be prepared and supplied after a proper request for the reports are made. (An email sent requesting documents, or a subpoena.). Violations of the court orders or guidelines will be documented and reported. Please direct any legal questions to your legal representatives as the Monitor can only inform you of the guidelines to be followed.

No rude, violent, or aggressive behavior towards the Fort Ringo staff will be tolerated. This will result in being banned from facility.

By signing the intake paperwork you agree to follow every guideline and rule in place by the staff at Fort Ringo, the court order/agreement.
